

I strenuously oppose any attempt to weaken the State of Indiana's telephone privacy law. This includes the petition to the FCC filed by the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA).

Since this law was put into place our family has enjoyed welcome relief from telephone solicitors, including the companies that wanted to sell us additional products or services than those we were already purchasing from them. Please keep unwanted sales calls from invading our home.